

THE BENEFITS OF AN EVM GAP ANALYSIS: How Does a Gap Analysis Benefit You?

Use today's performance data to manage and control future outcomes.™

For larger Government programs, using an Earned Value Management System (EVMS) is considered the cost of doing business.

A Gap Analysis by a third-party consultant has many benefits, but these three stand out among the rest:

1 It provides a clear, unbiased picture of an organization's program management environment: processes, tools, and staff proficiency.

2 It provides an implementation plan that fits within the organization's constraints (i.e., time, funding, staffing, corporate priorities, etc.).

3 It provides a roadmap that guides the implementation of improvements to the program management environment for new and ongoing projects.
